Situated on the way down from Mellieha centre to Mellieha Bay, one80 enjoys stunning views, stretching from the majestic parish church perching on the top of the hill, down to the lush greenery of 'Wied ta' Ruman' and onto the largest sandy beach of the island, Mellieha Bay. A 180-degree view...the inspiration for the name of this restaurant and lounge.

Perfectly positioned for a quick lunch if you are on the way to one of the beaches within the vicinity or over to the sister island - Gozo. Watch out though, as lunch might extend into dinner... basking in the evening sun with a spectacular sunset view!

Savour distinctive dishes prepared by a specialised team of chefs in a relaxed, yet stylish ambiance whilst admiring the art of Mellieha's treasured artist - George Fenech. Views can be enjoyed from every spot of the restaurant.

one80 is a food and drink destination for lunch or a complete night out. You may visit the lounge area for lighter snacks, cool cocktails and drinks.
